*High on this mountain
The clouds down below
I'm feeling so strong and alive
From this rocky perch
I'll continue to search
For the Wind
And the snow
And the sky
I want a lover
I want some friends
And I want to live in the sun
And I want to do all the things that I never have done.
Sunny bright mornings
And pale moonlit nights
Keep me from feeling alone
Now, I'm learning to fly
And this freedom is like
Nothing that I've ever known
I've seen the bottom
And I've been on top
But mostly I've lived in between
And where do you go
When you get to the end of your dream?
Once in a vision
I came on some woods
And stood at a fork in the road
My choices were clear
Yet I froze with the fear
Of not knowing which way to go
One road was simple
Acceptance of life
The other road offered sweet
peace
When I made my decision
My vision became my release.*

One of the biggest worries of a yearbook is the hope that the patron drive will be a success. These 47 seniors sold over $65 worth of patrons which totaled $3879.00. The Memories staff is greatly indebted to them and so should the class of 79.

BACK TO LIFE

Gir Tu

The day for which we have been waiting, finally arrived on November 4, when the Senior Class of BMHS added a new twist to the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

This year's dance was off on a different foot. For years, the Sadie was a formal dance. But this year, the theme was the life of the farmer and his farm. The featured dance was the traditional cloverleaf. The featured band was the Carnaby.

This Sadie Hawkins was a twist on the traditional in which the girl takes the first step and chooses her partner. Usually the girls treat their date to a dinner, even if it's at McDonald's. This tradition originated in the 20's and was considered a fun harvest dance.

Corn shocks and bales of hay were added to the decor to put everybody in the fall mood. The hoedown was complete with refreshments. Everybody had a real knee-slapping time.

ident ncil

On November 26, 27 and 28, the Bishop McCort High School students participated in the 1978 Pennsylvania State Association of Student Body Officers. The conference had the largest attendance in its history. There were about 700 students representing 100 schools throughout Pennsylvania. Four representatives from each school were present.

The conference included a discussion session on the state of the state, work, and of course

discussion session on different school debated many topics, and gave ideas to help their schools give a better environment. They were concerned. They talked about everything from orientation to orientation. You can't do it without it. It was like, having students from different Pennsylvania give their pro and con, or at least concern the youth. The students really wanted to help other schools with their school. They also wanted to help their friends. The 42nd S.C. Conference was a success that helped us solve problems, gave us ideas, and brought them into our lives. I hope everyone will be able to attend the conference which will be coming June in Florida. Would you like Bishop McCort represented at the National Convention? Well then help us finance our way there.

"because we want to make them nice people, and they are!"

Miss Mulvehill is an authority on that subject as she has taught here for sixteen years. Father Greinader, one of our former principals, persuaded her to teach, and furthermore, to teach at McCort. "One year," she states, "Father was in dire need of teachers. This was when we had 1200 students. He had asked me time and time again, but until then I had decided against it. So I finally gave in, and asked him what he wanted me to teach. His response was 'anything you know.' " But there was a specific need for English teachers and it is in this field that the talented woman has taught for so many years.

However general the statement "whatever you know" might have been, Miss Mulvehill could have taught more than

Furthermore, "My father had charisma to burn," Miss Mulvehill reflected, "We of spring received a mixture of these characteristics, but no two of us are alike in any way." She went on to explain that the perserverance that the offspring in her family holds came from her mother. "It is perserverance under any kind of hardship," she contends.

CO- CAPTAINS

Once again, the Crusherettes proved their superiority by becoming one of the top teams in the state. Their spring playoff season consisted of seven games, six of which were victories — against Williamsburg, Windber, Homer Center, Union, Northern Bedford, and Venago County Christian. They were defeated by Johnsonburg 52-48 in their final game. Overall, the girls had a very successful season which will be long remembered.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We, Don and Sue, would like to thank the following people:

Sr. Louella, for her seventy-five favors. We hope we'll pay her back.

Fr. Bunn, for our one day in advance picture days.

Roger K. and Roger J. our photographers from Cover, who really understand Don's good ideas.

Miss Kimmel who sacrificed her Art supplies.

Larry Suhey, our yearbook representative, whose punctuality never failed us?

The members of the yearbook staff — we appreciate their long hours of work.

The faculty, who co-operated on picture day. The Student Body, especially the Class of '79. Our Patrons for their support. The Ladies in the Office, especially Miss Wills to whom this yearbook is dedicated for her twenty-five years service to B.M.H.S. (Anyone who sticks to something for 25 years is pretty special).

Last, but by no means least, Ms. Colgan who helped us through 208 pages of learning, hard work, fun and excitement. But most of all happy

IM DEUTSCHLAND

On the following four pages are some of the highlights of the German Club's adventures in Deutschland during spring vacation. Our journey took us from the foothills of the Pennsylvania Appalachians, 6000 miles across the North Atlantic and into the heart of Western Europe. Our icelandic DC-10 touched down in the tiny principality of Luxembourg, and from there proceeded into Germany for the beginning of an exciting and truly "once-in-a-lifetime" experience. The next eight days were a whirlwind of activity, visiting historic castles, sampling the local cuisine and delicious pastries, and more than anything else, getting a good feel for the German language and the "old-world" charm of the German people. We returned to the United States tired, but jubilant, touched by the warmth and excitement of another land and its people, and enthusiastic about returning again.

MEMORIES 79

*Your friends say they'll keep in touch, but you know they won't.
Your teachers say come back and see them. And you know you won't.
Maybe someday it won't matter. But right now, it hurts a little.*
